

Coram Deo bookings and rental rates

RENTAL RATES

We distinguish between once-off use (first column) and bookings for a period (second column) or an ongoing rental agreement. The ongoing/rental option is not specifically mentioned but slightly lower per month than what is stated in the column for period use.

- Training rooms (a period is at least two bookings)
- Breakout rooms/ consulting rooms (a period is at least four bookings)
- Rental agreement (minimum period of six months)

Decide which room/s interest you most. Then consider whether the inquiry is for once off or a period of use or ongoing rental. Then look at the rates available per hour, per half day (4 hours), per day, per week, per month. Note that training rooms are unavailable during certain weekday mornings and some evenings.

RESOURCES RATES

Here are the resources that are billed extra (as it depends on your needs). They are calculated as x-percentage of the rooms rented. They are:

- Use of the media facilities (i.e., projector, screen, audio);
- Zoom professional account (such as for when you have an online and local event at the same time - note that this likely will require a technician billed extra if you don't have the internal capability),
- Flip chart paper / whiteboards / pens (we have four)
- Copier and paper
- Any in-person assistance needed (e.g., technical, administrative assistance, someone opening up/locking over weekends)

OTHER

We do not offer catering as such (later maybe from a third-party, who would then be welcome to use our equipment).

The use of cutlery is not at this stage paid for extra, especially if your organisation cleans afterwards. Though if something breaks you will have to replace it. But we can arrange for someone washing the cutlery (which would then be an additional charge).

If you can let me know what specifically you are looking at, we can look at things in more detail.
